

INTRODUCING OUR EXCITING RANGE OF

Sausages

Breakfast Sausage

No full English breakfast is complete without a Breakfast Sausage... or two! The pork sausage has slight lemon flavours and combined with its coarse texture makes the perfect sausage and the ideal addition to a mouthwatering breakfast plate. Easy to prepare - simply grill or slowly pan fry, turning occasionally, until brown on all sides.

SERVING SUGGESTION

As the name suggests, simply add our Breakfast Sausages to your usual morning fry up, along with bacon, mushrooms, tomato, baked beans and eggs. Also ideal as a dinner offering of 'Bangers and Mash'.

Frankfurters

A long, skinless, smoked sausage with a distinctive colour, Frankfurters are traditionally made with select pork meat and a blend of spices.

SERVING SUGGESTION

Our delicious Franks should be heated before serving. Boil, grill, steam, fry or barbecue them. They make fantastic hot dogs served with Dijon mustard as a perfect accompaniment.

Cheese Grillers

Our deliciously moist and succulent Cheese Grillers are made using selected coarsely ground pork meat and aged cheddar.

Combine these unforgettable flavours with a pleasantly coarse texture, and you have pure meaty perfection.

SERVING SUGGESTION

Our Cheese Grillers make the ultimate subs! Simply place them in a long breadroll and generously dollop on your favourite toppings and pickle condiments. An absolute must alongside egg and bacon, making a breakfast complete!

Pizza Cheese Grillers

A whopping 450mm Cheese Griller!

SERVING SUGGESTION

Spiral grill it on a low charcoal fire, roll it up into the crust of a pizza base or simply fry it up and add to your cocktail platter.

Viennas

The Vienna, considered the quintessential hot dog, owes its origin to Frankfurt and Vienna. While our Viennas are pre-cooked and ready to eat, they're best when gently warmed in hot water or, better yet, when grilled.

SERVING SUGGESTION

They make delicious hot dogs when placed in fresh bread rolls and topped with tomato sauce and/or mustard.

Bockwurst

Bockwurst is a typical German sausage and is one of the most popular varieties within the German community. The sausage is traditionally made from ground veal and pork and is flavoured with white pepper, paprika and other spices, then smoked.

SERVING SUGGESTION

Our Bockwurst sausages are wonderful when grilled and should be enjoyed, with a dollop of mustard and an ice cold beer. For something different, cut the sausage into 50mm lengths, make a cross-shaped incision on each end approx. 5mm deep, then deep fry for a few minutes until the ends flare out. Remove and drain on an absorbent paper towel and serve as an appealing and creative cocktail snack.

Russians

Russian Sausages or Kielbasa, is the name for sausages found in Germany and Central/Eastern Europe. They're sometimes called Polish or Ukrainian sausages and come in a variety of shapes, sizes and flavourings and are typically spicy.

SERVING SUGGESTION

Our Russian sausages are spicy and rich in flavour. They're great in hearty dishes and also make the best filling for sausage rolls. Very popular served with chips. Slice to make a great addition to omelettes and pizza, or simply enjoy as a snack.
